

Vaccinations and Immunizations

West Georgia Technical College is not a residential college and therefore does not require does not require vaccinations or record of immunization for admissions. However, proof of certain vaccinations and immunization records are required after admission for some programs such as some healthcare programs where students would be doing clinical externships in medical or other facilities.